California BOTANIC GARDEN

Position Announcement: Specimen Digitizer Internship

Position Title: Specimen Digitizer Intern
Department: Herbarium
Status & Duration: Part-time position, 20 hours / week, 15 weeks
Supervisor: Herbarium Administrative Curator
Application Deadline: 19 August 2022
Position Start Date: 26 September 2022

Position Summary:
The Specimen Digitizer Intern will be responsible for all aspects of digitization on one of two NSF funded projects aimed at increasing the availability of specimens digitally. The All Asia project is aimed at digitizing herbarium specimens from 36 Asian countries. The Carlquist Extended Specimen Network project is aimed at curation and ditization of the Sherwin Carlquist collection.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities:
- Assists with barcoding specimens for digitization.
- Captures digital images of specimens.
- Adds skeletal data (barcode, taxon name, geography) during image capture.
- Transcribes specimen data from herbarium specimen labels into herbarium database.
- Assists with barcoding events.
- Assists with various herbarium tasks as needed.

Education/Qualifications:
- Bachelor's degree Botany, Biological Sciences, or Life Sciences or currently enrolled in an undergraduate program with coursework in botany, biology, environmental sciences or related field
- Computer literate, proficiency with Microsoft Windows, Word and Excel is required. Familiarity with collection databases and file management systems highly desirable
- Experience working in herbaria or with natural history collections highly desirable
- Experience with preparation of archival quality specimens
- Knowledge of world geography
- Strong oral and written communication skills. Excellent people skills
- Ability to work independently and as a team
- Excellent organizational skills and an eye for details

Qualified candidates please submit resume and cover letter to:
Attention: Mare Nazaire, Administrative Curator
1500 N College Avenue, Claremont, CA 91711
email: mnazaire@calbg.org